

Family update #213

September 5, 2023

Dear family and friends,

Outbreaks Update: Influenza outbreak lifted

We are grateful that no more confirmed case occurred and the flu outbreak on the second floor of Greenview Supportive Living has been lifted. Thanks to everyone for continuing to practise proper hand hygiene and defer visitation when feeling unwell.

Partial Code Grey in effect

Our teams have been working hard to protect our residents and keep them as comfortable as possible despite the poor air quality in the city. As of today, Environment Canada is reporting Air Quality Health Index values of 7, which is considered “high risk”. For the safety of our residents and everyone in the facilities, partial Code Grey has been announced and protective measures have been implemented in our facilities. Families are advised not to bring the residents outdoor until the condition improves.

Safety is our top priority. We will closely monitor the situation and implement necessary actions and provide information for the Wing Kei community as required. Thank you in advance for your kind support and cooperation.

Wing Kei Job Fair: September 9, 2023

Wing Kei has been growing fast and we always welcome dynamic people to join our various teams. If you know someone who has a passion to work in the senior care field and believe in our mission and vision, please invite your friend to attend our Job Fair which will be held on Saturday, September 9 between 11 am and 2 pm at Wing Kei Crescent Heights. People interested can also visit our Career page on our website for more information about the positions we are recruiting. Thank you for spreading the word!

Take care

The weather has become cooler these few days. Coupled with the poor air quality, please take good care of yourselves and try to avoid strenuous activities outdoors at this time, especially for those who experience symptoms such as coughing and throat irritation.

*Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise;
give thanks to him and praise his name.*
